

THE WRATH(ANGER) OF GOD

The Wrath of God

It is a common thought that God is a God of Love, But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth. Psalm 86:15, so where does this wrath come from? God the Father is a loving God, but He is also a pure and holy God and as such cannot accept, agree with, allow any wrong, or permit disobedience to His rules by any person. Though God may be doing all that can be done to save people, there will be a point finally when God will have to judge any who have rejected Him, then His anger will be released. The Bible also shows a number of events when He judges a person or group of people over the years.

Using the Bible reference Rom 1:18 we find that there are four facts:-

- 1) The wrath or anger of God is on the world and the people today. We only have to look at the Biblical stories and the history of the world to see the way the anger of God appears.
- 2) The anger of God applies to all the people, we all have done wrong, there are no "little" or "big" wrongs, if we disobey the rules set by God then all is wrong, we are all sinners. If the ten commandments were like a chain which is holding us from the ceiling, each link being one of the ten commandments, only one link needs to break for us to fall.
- 3) We cannot escape the angry, wrath of God, He knows all about us, our heart desires, our actions and thoughts. Heb 4:13
- 4) Each of us deserve it, because we each have deliberately refuse God's love for us, we have turned against Him and disobey His instructions and rules.
